

2018 Duffy Gallery TRQG Show Jan 20-March 18, 2018

Duffy Gallery TRQG Show

TRQG Quilts will once again be displayed in the Duffy Gallery at the Tryon Palace North Carolina History Center. This will again be a beautiful show. These quilts will be on display from January 20 thru March 18, 2018. These quilts will be collected/distributed by TRQG members at the Duffy Gallery and hung/taken down by Tryon Palace staff. The room will be secured and the quilts will be insured.

Quilt Drop off date: January 11, 2018

12:00– 2:00 pm in the craft/activity room at the History Center. You will have to sign your quilt(s) in and out for pick-up, similar to the process we use at our Quilt Show.

Tyron Palace will require a guild member sign a quilt loan form and a quilt loan receipt document at drop off. This is necessary for insurance control processes.

The room is located to the right and a little beyond the reception desk.

If you are unable to pick up your quilt after the show (probably 3/20), please designate in writing, to whom your quilt should be released.

Reception January 19, 2018 for all TRQG Guild members. More information will follow.

Public show begins Jan. 20 and runs through March 18, 2018, where we will also be showing and selling tickets for our 2018 Raffle Quilt – “Lilies in Bloom”.

Special Info on Quilt submission:

Quilts will need to have appropriate sized sleeves and labels on the back. The sleeve should be at the top of the quilt. Please submit your quilt in a labeled pillow case with your name and number of the quilt on the outside. The process will be similar to the one we use for our Quilt Show.

Guild members may submit only quilts they make (maximum of 2). No repeats from 2016. Quilts will be selected on available space (i.e. form submission does not guarantee selection for the exhibit). Quilt selection will be communicated to participants prior to the event.
