News of the Twin Rivers Quilter's Guild New Bern, North Carolina

From the President

Presidents Report for Nov. 14, 2024

The Business meeting today, November 14, 2024, is my last business meeting as your president. I will be attending our Christmas luncheon on Dec. 11, which will be my last time as your leader. I sincerely thank everyone for your support, kindness, sympathy and love during my two years in office. You are such a wonderful group that whenever I asked for a volunteer to fill a vacancy or for help with a need, you did not hesitate to step up. I believe that is what makes our guild stronger and kinder, and benefits ourselves and our community.

See pg. 2 for important information on the Christmas luncheon!

AN OVERVIEW OF THE LAST TWO YEARS

- In March 2023 a new community charity, My Sister's House, was added to our list thanks to Pat Kruger asking us for support. The guild supports this group by making twin-size bed quilts for the home which has eight beds for clients. When that woman leaves she keeps the quilt and knows she is covered by love. The guild provides bed quilts as needed. The guild was in need of a secretary and Margaret Puotinen filled that need. Thank you to Janet Olsen for temporarily filling in for Diana Rezab who resigned for medical reasons. Thank you, Margaret.

A big round of applause for Maragaret Puotinen (secretary), Jan Penner (president), Carolyn Hansen (vice president) and Jackie Harrison (treasurer). Thank you for your leadership in 2023-24. Great job, ladies!

In May we started celebrating the birthdays for those born that month and each month we have continued recognizing the list. We also had a potluck picnic meeting at the park. Business then lunch, show & tell time, and some games.

Program News from the Vice President

Hello members, this is my last newsletter report as vice president and it is bittersweet! Honestly, two years have passed so quickly, and in that time I have gotten to work closely with many of our members. Getting to know you better was the reason I agreed to accept the position of vice president. So many of you have been so helpful.

Information on Greenville's Day of Sharing is on page 11.

I want to thank my program committee members. I love all the new ideas you all came up with, and the great instructors we all chose in the last two years. Thank you to all the members who gladly agreed to teach our monthly workshops. You have given so much of your expertise and you are all appreciated! Thank you to the board for working with me, I have tremendous respect for all you have done. And thank you to all the members for being kind patient and supportive. I wish good luck to the incoming board, and you can count on my support.

We had a wonderful instructor this past week. Everyone who took the classes learned a lot of useful techniques. My thanks to Barbara Cline. I hope we can have her back at Twin Rivers Quilt Guild again.

Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas to you all.

—Carolyn Hansen

Annual Christmas Party

Wednesday, Dec. 11
11:30 a.m.

New Bern Country Club on
Country Club Road in New Bern

This event is open to our guild members. Your cost is $15.

Choice of entrée: Chicken, Fish or Vegetarian

You must pay for your cost when you sign up, either cash, or a check made out to Twin Rivers Quilters Guild.

Sign up deadline date is Dec. 1.
Contact Kathy Farrar or Fran Rice.

- A wine bar will be available for cash payment.
- New member photos will be taken for the 2025 directory.
- Janet Olsen will conduct the drawing for the winner of the 2024 UFO Challenge. You do not need to be present to win.

OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES DURING OUR PARTY

Gift Exchange: Voluntary Participation

Your gift can be homemade or purchased. Purchased gifts should not cost more than $20. Participation is voluntary and a good time is had by all as we exchange those gifts.! Please WRAP your package.

Christmas Block Exchange: Voluntary Participation

Those who wish to participate in the Christmas Block Exchange should bring a 12.5" unfinished size Christmas block. Please WRAP your block up like a firecracker, putting it inside an empty paper towel tube or part of a wrapping paper tube. Wrap the outside of the tube. A basket will be available to collect these. You can take as many as you brought (if you put two blocks into the basket, you can take two out).

Food Drive: Voluntary Participation

You may bring a donation of non-perishable items for RCS (Religious Community Services). We will need volunteers to deliver this food; contact Kathy Farrar or Fran Rice.

Coastal Center for Hope and Healing: Voluntary Participation

We will focus on collecting items for children (any sizes) of socks, underwear, pajamas, and personal care items. DO NOT WRAP these items. If you want to contribute wrapping paper for the shelter, that would be appreciated.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Congratulations to Lorraine Wocel, who won the block of the month, the Cotton Reels block! Out of 20 blocks that we handed out, we had 18 blocks returned. There is no block of the month for December. There will be a new block of the month in January. We will be doing applique cats! I hope everyone enjoys it. Have a great Christmas and happy New Year! See you in 2025. - Lilly Lucier

Sunshine Report

Get well cards:

- Chris Youngs, pneumonia
- Ed Dzioba, eye surgery
- Laure Manette, kidney stones
- Ruth Hill, shoulder replacement
- Kathy Farrar, surgery
- Evelyn Bernhardt, hand surgery
- Linda Tobacco, spine surgery
- Sally Cornford, hip surgery rescheduled
- Holly Pace, foot surgery set for next year

Sympathy card:

Laure Manette, whose mother passed away

Thinking of you card:

Sue Royster, medical issues

I want to take this time to wish you all a very Happy Thanksgiving, a very Merry Christmas and a wonderful, happy and healthy New Year. As you all have heard of the "snow bunnies" who go to Florida in the winter, well, this snow bunny is heading to New Jersey (wind, snow, rain)! Crazy huh? So for any Sunshine cards needed in the next several months, please call Evelyn Bernhardt at 252-254-8420. Love you all. — Kay Amend

Request for Kitchen Items for Empty Bowls

TRQG has been asked to contribute hand crafted kitchen-related items for the annual community Empty Bowls fundraiser on Feb. 21. These include:

- Microwave Bowl Cozies
- Potholders
- Mug Rugs
- Jar Openers

They have requested 100 items if possible. This is a great way to help your community. We need to turn them in by February 19, 2025. I will be at upcoming Stitch & Chat days or you can bring items to the January business meeting on Jan. 9. Thank you all!
– Jan Penner

Upcoming Community Sewing

Community sewing takes place the third Thursday of most months. Reminder: there are patterns in closet, if you would like to sew at home.

- Nov.21: We will sew fabric food bags for Religious Community Services (RCS) to distribute food to those in need. I have 25 bags cut out and ready to sew. But if you have extra fabric of a 1/2 yd or more, and looking for a use for it, these bags are greatly appreciated by RCS.
- December: No community sewing due to the holidays.
- Jan. 16: The community sew will be fidget quilts. Becky Barnes has made up kits ready to sew.
- Feb and March: *No community sewing days so you can concentrate on completing your quilts for the quilt show.
- April 17: Save your scraps! We are going to do scrap strip blocks.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 714-330-7638 or email marypq@yahoo.com.

Thank you!

Thanks for Your Generous Giving! Help for Western North Carolina

Once again, the amazing quilters have come through with many quilts and supplies to Western North Carolina individuals who have been impacted by Hurricane Helene.

More than 120 beautiful quilts of all sizes, 30+ pillowcases, and five quilted sweatshirts/jackets will be given to the Asheville Guild. In addition we have collected many, many yards of fabric and sewing supplies for the Asheville Guild's Linus Quilting group who lost all their supplies.

These will be delivered Nov. 20 to the Asheville Guild, who will distribute those quilts and supplies to those moving back into their homes throughout the next few months. They have many, many contacts in the local area to ensure that those items go to those that need them.

Our thanks to all the quilters who supported this activity on extremely short notice. Becky Barnes, Suzie Hardy, Kay Amend, Jan Penner, Rae Gee, Jenny Nebe, Mary Quay, Tori Smith, Mary Daugherty, Claudia Moran, Alvina Diello, Lilly Lucier, Sue Kleeman, Pat Kruger, Joan Fiala, Lorraine Wocel, Mary Ann Coxson, Paula Paganucci, Sharon Rhoton, Sally Bush, Marty Dzioba, Mary O'Neill, Dorothy Najarian, and Chris Gillespie all contributed to this successful campaign.

What an outstanding and generous group of quilters. If I missed someone, sorry.

CHRIS BABICH

The first time I met Chris was at our neighborhood's first 'gathering of quilters' at my house. She walked over to one of our walls with a frame that held several small wooden houses. She smiled at me and said, "We have the same collection – just different places." The houses represented different Army duty stations.

Chris's dad was also in the Army. She counted all the places she had lived, and the total was 26! She met her husband Jim and married him in Hawaii when her family was stationed there.

In 1976, she and Jim were transferred to Augsburg, Germany. She found some quilting magazines at the Post Exchange, liked what she saw, and her quilting journey began. She started by making quilted and appliqued pillows. Everyone got a pillow! One day it dawned on Chris that if she could make all these pillows, she could probably make a quilt. At the Babich's next assignment in Carlisle, Penn., she took her first class, learning the RIGHT way to quilt (according to Chris).

Some of her jobs when she was not sewing included (in Germany) dance instructor and math tutor. When they moved to Ft. Hauchuca in Arizona, she got her master's degree in counseling and started working for the Army Career and Alumni Program (ACAP). It is a program that helps soldiers and their families transition to civilian life. Within six months she was the manager of the local program.

Chris and Jim moved to New Bern in 2010. She had two goals: win a golf tournament and win a ribbon for one of her quilts. She found the ribbon the bigger challenge, but she has done both.

And as a final note – that woman who moved 26 times passed that life path to her son, Bryan, who was just promoted to general in the US Army!

Membership Dues & New Directory Photos

Membership dues for 2025 are not due until January 31, 2025. Printed forms will be available at the Christmas luncheon; however, the forms and checks will NOT be collected that day. Please plan to submit them in January.

We will also be taking everyone's photo for the new 2025 membership directory at the Christmas luncheon and at the January meetings. Questions? Contact Janet Olsen.

New Member Mentoring

Welcome new members. As we come to the end of 2024, I am reflecting on this past year. In 2025 I'll provide a questionnaire to all new members for suggestions of how we can make our guild more new-member friendly. This is your guild and we want you to feel at home. Remember to call me with any questions or concerns. I hope to see you all at the Christmas Luncheon. To those who cannot attend, have a Merry Christmas and see you in the New Year. —Carolyn Hansen (252-675-8994)

The Quilt Show is Coming! The Quilt Show is Coming!

Lots of TRQG members are working hard behind the scenes preparing for our 2025 show. April 11-12 will be here before we know it, and everyone's help will be needed to present our best efforts to the community.

RIBBON COMMITTEE: We are very close to finishing all the ribbons for the show! We only need one more meeting to finish a few more. I will notify members by e-mail after the first of the year as to the where and when! Thank you for all you have done. — Mary Daugherty

PROGRAM COMMITTEE: Ad sales are nearly complete and layout on the program booklet has begun.

CHALLENGE QUILT: Rules are on our website.

Twice Around Treasures (TAT) Guidelines

It is that time again when we begin the frenzy of activities for the upcoming show. Twice Around Treasures is a large part of profits and a "first stop" for many of our devoted attendees. We would like to take this opportunity to share with you, the guidelines set forth to make this an efficient, profitable, and fun experience for all.

WELCOMED DONATIONS:

- 100% cotton fabric
- Quilting notions such as rulers, patterns, thread, stencils, scissors and quilt books

Based on experiences of past chair ladies, PLEASE DO NOT DONATE:

- Batting scraps
- Polyester blend, wool, upholstery, or apparel fabric
- Magazines
- Sewing machines
- Quilt frames
- Patterns for apparel, toys, home dec
- Craft supplies (one would think that this would be a great outlet and source for crazy quilt supplies, but historic sales have disproved this theory). We have buttons are an exception to the rule.
- Books more than 15 years old (this seems like a short time, however the internet, web sites, Pinterest), in addition to the technologies of quilting tools and accessories, has had a tremendous impact of how and what we quilt). Newer books will be accepted after 4 pm during the Wednesday setup on April 9.

Please note that once an item is donated it is out of your control. Items donated outside of the established guidelines will be re-donated/dispersed at the discretion of the TAT committee. Please contact Christine Youngs (607-244-6877) or Sue Portwood (607-329-7199) with any questions.

Quilt Registration is Now Open! Yay

Check the Twin Rivers Quilt Guild website for application and all information regarding filling out forms. Our webmaster has done a wonderful job in putting a link right on the first page, so no hunting around for forms. Please read quilt categories for the show carefully as some have changed since our last show.

Please read Rules, Entry Instructions, Entry Categories & Definitions for detailed information. (Quilt measurements have been clarified, including Quilt sleeve placement.)

I will be at the Dec. 11 Christmas Luncheon so that you may hand in your registration. Don't forget to include a self-addressed envelope and a photo of your quilt.

Any questions please contact me. Registration closes on Feb. 13 so don't be a last minute quilter.☺ Thank you.

Mary O'Neill, Quilt Show Registration Chair,

Children's Quilts

For the last meeting of this year, I received 10 quilts from the following: Kay Amend 2, Chris Youngs 3, and Karen Dodd 5.

I would like to thank everyone who turned in quilts this year, they are greatly appreciated by the children who receive them. --Lorraine Wocel

Military Quilts Needed

Thank you for your continued support of our deployed Service members and local veterans. All donations are appreciated. Thank you Jackie Harrison and Karen Dodd for each donating a quilt this month. Keep up the great work. —Mary Daugherty

Coastal Center for Hope and Healing

This is the new title for the Coastal Women's Shelter which is now also serving men and nonbinary persons, and is therefore a more inclusive name. At the time of this newsletter we do not yet have the details of the two families we will be supporting at Christmas, but know that thanks to your generous support, they will have a special one. The shoppers are anxious to see the shopping lists and get started! Please let me know if you want to join in the fun.

Special thanks to Jenny Nebe who crafted and donated four Christmas quilts from panels donated by our members. The new location for CCHH is at the intersection of Hotel Drive and Trent Road. They would be glad for your donations of kitchenware, clothing, towels and other items listed on their website.

Have a wonderful holiday with your friends and family and we look forward to being together again in 2025. – Nancy Hausman

Nursing Home Report

A big thank you for the four lap quilts turned in this month by Jenny Nebe (2), Kay Amend(1) and Chris Youngs (1), and also to Chantal Huestis for 2 clothing protectors.

Total donations for 2024:

- Lap Quilts - 114
- Clothing Protectors – 82
- Walker Bags – 2
- Fidget quilts – 71
- Eyeglass cases – 104
- RCS bags – 2

Thank you, Becky, for the great job you've done delivering our donations to those who needed them!

Each quarter I delivered to all 14 nursing or memory care homes; Bayview, Cherry Point Bay, Croatan Village, Grantsbrook, Navion, Riverpoint Crest, Brook Stone, Craven County (hospice, shut-ins), Good Shepherd, Homeplace, Pruitt, Truewood, Gardens of Pamlico and Gardens of Trent (memory only).

Beginning in January 2025 I plan to let someone else take over the collecting and delivering to nursing homes. It is very rewarding and I have enjoyed it for the past two years. – Becky Barnes

My Sister's House, "Where the Past Doesn't Matter"

My Sister's House at this time has three ladies and a new one is expected Dec. 3. All are fully employed and doing well. One was hired as a cook and has gone on to chef status. They are always working on improving whatever skills they need to succeed as they move on, be it budgeting, high school GED, etc.

Next month is a fundraiser in Morehead for a new shelter and two of the women will be speakers. This is just one example of how far they have come.

Thank you, TRQG, for supporting these women by providing warm quilts! — Pat Kruger

What a Treat!

Professional quilt instructor Barbara Cline did a wonderful presentation for TRQG on Nov. 14, displaying her amazing graphic quilts and techniques for creating stars, triangles and complex blocks.

Guild members who signed up took one of two classes taught on Nov. 14 or Nov. 15 to learn Barbara's techniques.

- The June business meeting had teacher Annette Ornelas give a presentation that was well received.
- September was preparing for the October 14, 2023 Day of Sharing. We recognized the guild's 40th ruby anniversary, with Ruby Red being the chosen color for table placemats and decorations. Susan Faith, Holly Pace and Lilly Lucier presented the new raffle quilt, which is colorful and beautiful.
- October had sad news as Sewing On The River closed. Becky and the staff were very good to our guild. Fall retreat took place and we had a great time at The Islander Hotel on Emerald Isle.
- November is a month to be thankful for everything.
- No meeting in December, a special Christmas luncheon. Bring your holiday block for exchange, a gift if you chose to participate and children's pajamas for Coastal Women's Shelter.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS

Membership has been growing and new friends being made. We are off to a good start as we begin the new year.

- February was busy discussing and voting on the budget. Following budget approval business resumed. UFO's started appearing as those that signed up completed them...good incentive to get things done. Community Service made eyeglass cases made for nursing homes. New books were purchased for the guild library, which has an easy new check out process. Guild members quilts on community display at the Duffy Center along with our raffle quilt.
- March's spring retreat coming up a great way to get to know more about each other and get a lot of sewing, eating, getting inspired.
- April had lots of UFO's on parade as did the regular Show & Tell sign ups...so much creativity within this group. Susan Faith happily reported the contract was signed for the April 11 & 12, 2025 quilt show.
- The May Business Meeting was a potluck picnic meeting. Business first, then show and tell and a lunch buffet. Then some games along with a table of gifted fabrics and notions and patterns from Marie Garber's stash.
- June was busy with signup sheets for the November classes with Barbara Cline and our Day of Sharing on October 5, 2024. Mary Quay brought a surprise guest, member Rosemary Orner, who has been staying with her daughter while having cancer treatments. Stay Strong Rosemary!
- No Business Meeting in July. Laure Manette had a sewing day for making small favor boxes tables for the Day of Sharing. Our friend Karen Hallquist resigned her position as technology coordinator of our Facebook and website due to her moving to be closer to family. Fran Rice volunteered to fill the technology spot.

- Our October Day of Sharing was awesome. Special thanks to Laure Manette's family who ran the kitchen and made the main course of delicious chicken enchiladas. Guild members brought lots of other dishes and desserts and made placemats for tables. There were many door prizes for those holding the right tickets. Pepper Cory was our speaker and she gave a trunk show of her beautiful quilts and inspirational talk. Show & Tell by members and visiting guilds was great...a fun time and making new friends.
- Now we're up to our latest meeting in November! The Nov. 14 Business Meeting was packed with 68 in attendance. The Guild donated $1,500 to Samaritan's Purse and $1,500 to Baptist on a Mission for Hurricanes Helene and Milton. Members were asked to donate quilts for victims of those hurricanes and sewing supplies for a guild that lost everything in hurricane. Chris Gillespie, Dorothy Najarian and Mary O'Neill organized this donation and members filled Chris's car. We gave more than 129 quilts, 30-40 pillowcases and lots of fabrics, scissors, rulers and notions. See why I love this caring, giving, loving group?
- Thank you to Sewing Creation for donations to Lilly Lucier for the Guilds' use for charity quilts. Lilly has free backing fabric available...see her for more information!
- Thank you Becky Barnes for chairing the Nursing Home donations for the past two years. You've done a great job! Becky resigned her position and Nancy Houyoux offered to take over if someone took over her Member Outreach position, which is phoning to check on members who are not attending. Carlene Mount stepped up and volunteered to take over those duties. Again, ask and you shall receive.

I know this is long but it just highlights two fabulous years. Thank you Carolyn, Jackie and Margaret for your support, kindness, and love. Thank you to all who have stepped up to chair the workings of this guild. You are all appreciated and important.

Personally, from my heart I thank you for supporting me for four years and four months of my journey with my sweetheart on his final journey. You need to know how much stronger you have made me. How much happiness you gave me. You all got me through this just by a hug, a smile, words, good thoughts, cards, emails, calls, texts, flowers, food and by coming to church service. When I spotted the colors of quilts I took a big breath and smiled.

I truly love you all and I thank you! Love 'n Hugs,
Jan Penner
